

Special Character Definition

Mā ēnei e whai ake nei e whakatua te āhutanga Motuhake o Te Kareti o Te Aute.

The special character of Te Aute College is determined by:

Tō tātou, tō te iwi tino rangatiratanga

Noteme he Māori tatou, he taonga tino whakahirahira tō tātou reo me ngā tikanga ki a tātou ā, nā ēnei i whakatōmai te katoa o tō tātou uho hei whare wānanga hei marae tōna tūrangawaewae.

Uru katoa a tātou tikanga Māori puta noa i tō tātou oranga tonu hei Kāreti.

Our tino rangatiratanga as a people.

As Maori, our language and tikanga are very important to us and they underline our whole essence as a marae-based learning institution.

Our culture permeates our very existence as a College.

Ko tō tātou whakawhanaungatanga ki te Hāhi Mihingare o Aotearoa

Nā te mahana o te mahi honongatahi i taea ai e mātou te toko me te whakaharatau tō mātou whakapono Karaitiana i roto i te taiao whakaritenga ngākau kotahi.

Our affiliation with the Anglican Church of Aotearoa:

Within a warm working relationship, we are able to promote and practice our Christian faith in an environment that is mutually compatible.

Tō mātou taiao akoranga mo te rua tekau mā whā haora

Nā tēnei i whakawhiwhi he taiao akoranga ahurei whānui, he whakatika a-papori, ā-iwi, ā-tinana, ā hinengaro hoki, i a tātou mo te ao whānui.

Our 24 hour learning environment:

This provides a uniquely holistic learning environment where we are socially, culturally, physically and psychologically prepared for the outside world.
